THE TIMES.

FARMVILLE.

The church at Hampden-Sidney has been without a regular pastor since the resignation of Rev. D. Murray, and in the meantime students from the theological seminary at Richmond have been supplying the pulpit in a most acceptable way to the college boys. Perhaps the best in closer touch with them than the older preacher can, and if this is the result of young men preaching to young men, they should be called on to do the work, and yet the most effective sermon I ever heard delivered to young men was from the venerable Dr. Plummer, after he had passed the four-score mark ten miles post on life's way.

The Rev. Mr. King has recently been called to the college church and I am told will accept the call. He too, is a young man and has been ministering effectively to young men.

Mr. J. D. Watkins, the accomplished auctioneer at the Planter's warehouse though busy with his regular duties finds time now and then to officiate at a sale of country property and whether in town or country always "fetches" highest prices. The wonder is that his voice is equal to the daily demands made upon it, and yet he never complains of fatigue in the throat.

Farmville's record for "good cash" in the days of "scrip" is a white feather in its cap. There must have been wise and thoughtful management all along financial lines. It may be that the dispensary has contributed to the circulation of money.

Dr. Jones, of the Normal faculty, entertained the members of his Sunday school class in a most delightful manner on last Friday night at the home of Mrs. Barkley.

The "Kitchen" entertainment is still the talk of our social circles.

I read with interest the letters of the little ones to Santa Claus and notice that no boy or girl for a hobby horse.

Your Sheppard's correspondent is as optimistic as Bro. Bell, and it is the contagion of such good cheer could spread the country over the thoughts of panics would take wings and fly away.

Mrs. Burge, the venerable mother of Mrs. A. B. Bird, died at his country home recently and was buried in our town cemetery. She had reached the good old age of 92 years, and though she had her full share of earthly trials, she bore them with christian fortitude. No, a subtler spirit ever went from earth to heaven.

A sermon pre ched by President McAlister, President of Hampden Sidney recently at the Presbyterian church in this place was the work of a great master of pulpit oratory. Paul was the theme and was treated as the greatness of the subject demanded.

Four of the Normal teachers will have been boarding with Mrs. W. F. Richardson, will have to look for other homes after January 1st, and I do not know where in all Farmville they may hope to find more genuine comfort and real luxury. Mrs. Richardson is a queen among cooke keepers.

Miss Whiting, of the faculty, who has been off duty during the session on account of ill health, will resume her work with the beginning of the February term.

Judge Watkins and family will move from their county home and spend the winter in town. They will be warmly welcomed by our social and religious circles. Mr. Nat Morten, a veteran farmer will have charge of the farm and this means it will be well cared for.

Prince Edward is breaking the record in the hanging business. One more unfortunate soul to pay the awful penalty. It is a bad county in which to commit crime.

Rev. Mr. Fugate, of the Baptist church is winning golden opinions from members of his flock and of the people of the whole town.

Eggs at 40 cents a dozen nogs must be conspicuous by their absence this Christmas season. Here's to your "good health" and many returns with a glass of pure lithia water. And where are the turkeys to be had? Even the old hens are roosting all together too high, and as to hams, they too are but pleasant memories.

The Lunenburg boys were brave to announce a tournament for December and prayer still the fair maidens who for two hours and more faced the cold wind to watch the tilting. But there were expectant queers in that winter gathering and even furs were not necessary to insure quickened heart-beats.

There is no need to impress upon people the comfort of early Christmas shopping. The majority love the squeeze of the nigh before Christmas, and there are legions who can only get the money at the last moment. Some idea can be had as to how Christmas trade has grown when we are told that twenty years ago there were only four varieties of dolls on the market and now there are four hundred. Happy the man with a full purse at Christmas—that is, if he loves little children.

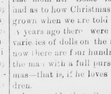
I am told that Sunday school classes increase in numbers as Christmas approaches. Some people are cruel enough to say the reason is not hard to give. I will not even venture a guess.

Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It need to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood, that is their work.



Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles.

You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Christmas Shopping...

Had you thought of it, that it is only a few days until Christmas? Whether you like shopping or not the time is here. Better not wait—there will be a great deal of elbowing and crowding during the last few days. This store is pretty busy all the year round. Indications are for a rush from now on. This stock is so large, and hardly any other line of business can present the combin tion of beauty and utility in so many varied forms. New goods coming every day now.

Quite a pretty Christmas tree was had at Traveler's Rest. It was loaded with more than 200 presents for the little ones and the big ones too. St Nicolas came to assist in unloading the tree and for the little ones to see him too.

Old Uncle Shed Jackson, colored, was found dead in his cabin last week. None can tell how long he had been dead.

We wish our worthy editor and his good workers a happy and prosperous New Year.

New Store.

Christmas passed very quietly with our people.

The marriage of Miss Grace Elcan to Mr. John Garnett was solemnized at noon on the 26th in the New Store church. The marriage ceremony was performed by her pastor, Rev. C. Barrel. Miss Janie May Crute with Mr. Grigg Elcan and Miss Edna Elcan with Mr. Joe Garnett, preceded the bride and groom. Mrs. Joe Crute, of Farmville, rendered the wedding march. The bride looked her best in her brown traveling dress. The groom was dressed in conventional black. They left immediately for their future home in Cumberland. They received many handsome presents. Our best wishes attend them.

Mr. Ned Steger, an old and well loved neighbor passed into eternal rest on the 24th. We sympathize with the sorrowing ones.

Smyrna and Concord both had a Christmas tree, and so the children were made happy.

Mrs Ben Hooper was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. B. Ellis, on the 28 h.

Mrs. W Morris, Mrs. Wm. Hosier, with their husbands, Mr. Morris and Mr. Ernest Jones, spent Christmas with their father, Mr. L. D. Jones.

Mr. Sam Hanna, of Hampden-Sidney and Miss Calva Watson, of Nottoway, are visiting Miss Edna Elcan.

Mr. W. S. Cox is at home for the holidays.

The Christmas holidays are over, the dear old year gone, we welcome 1908 and trust that when we bid her farewell we may have as many pleasant memories of her as we have of 1907. While to some it has been a sad year, yet I feel that it has been a dear old year.

Now that the church talk of fate of the money panic, but it does not seem to stop cupid in his work and the young men go bravely forward.

On December 26th at the home of Mr. John Rush, near Enonville, was the scene of a pretty marriage, the contracting parties being his daughter, Miss Blanche and Mr. Elmus Dowdy. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. Spencer.

On December 29th at 3 o'clock, p. m., at the home of Mr. Alex Sharp, his daughter, Miss Elizabeth was married to Mr. Joshua Jameson. It was a pretty marriage. Being such a crowd it was suggested that the guests form in front of the door, the groom being very green, and the party marched out and Rev J. J. Spencer performed the ceremony. The waiters were as follows: Willie Jameson, Mattie Sharp, Dave Harris, Ross Sharp, Willie Sharp, Nannie Sharp, Blanche and Willie Dunsford as maids. Then came the bride, who looked beautiful, gowned in pearl panama, trimmed in white. The groom wore the usual black. The maids were gowned in white organdie. After the ceremony a bountiful supper was served. We wish them a long and happy life.

Bent Creek.

The most noted event that has occurred in this community for a long time took place at Liberty Chapel on the evening of the 24th at 2 o'clock, when Mr. White A. Wells led to the altar Miss Early J. Phelps. The church had been beautifully decorated for the occasion. The waiters and those in attendance were as follows.

Miss Tempie Wells, maid of honoonor, Mr. Luther Phelps, best man. The waiters were Miss Maggie Phelps and Mr. Eddie Phelps, Miss Mary Wooldridge and Mr. Bob Lewellen, Miss Mamie Phelps and Mr. John Beal, Miss Maud Cunningham and Mr. Clarence Phelps.

The flowers were carried by Misses Effie Wells and Dora Wooldridge. Josephine Phelps and Florence Dixon were ribbon girls.

Messrs Leslie and Vincent Thornhill, Branch Harris and Sam Gunter were the ushers.

The wedding march was played by Miss Effie Wingfield.

Rev. Mr. Allison preformed the ceremony which made them one.

The bride was attired in white silk and never looked better while the groom wore the customary black. The bridesmaids were all gowned in white organdies, the groomsmen in black. The flower girls were pale blue organdie. The bride is a very popular young lady of the Glenfall neighborhood, while the groom is considered one of our best young men. They received many useful and costly presents. After the ceremony the bridal party went to the home of the groom, where a reception was given in honor of the occasion. A sumptious supper was served to between 75 and 100 guests.

Mr. Richard Phelps, of Newport News, Mr. Joseph Phelps, wife and daughter, of Lynchburg, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wells last week.

Miss Tempie Wells and Mr. and Mrs John Cunningham and two children, Misses Mamie and Ruth Phelps and Mrs. Mills, all of Lynchburg, were the guests of Mr. and Misses Maud and Lizzie Brown, of Shipman, returned home Sunday after a week's visit to their aunts, the Misses Dixon.

Misses Fannie and Florence Dixon are visiting friends at Norwood.

Herbert Garland, a young colored man was brought from West Virginia about two weeks ago, suffering with typhoid fever. He died Saturday night.

Southside.

Christmas has come and gone and again we wish the TIMES and its readers "a happy New Year" and may we all be up and doing with a heart for any fate, still achieving, still pursuing, learn to labor and to wait." The year as an unwritten page is unfolded before us, and in y we all be careful what we write thereon, for it can never be effaced and "what I have written I have written" will be the verdict of each one. We know not what is before us in the days to come, but we are assured, from past experience that not all will be pleasant days or days of sunshine for "some days must be dark and dreary" and in every life more of sorrow than gladness. With the New Year new resolutions are invariably made some to be kept but the majority to be broken. But let us every one make one good resolution and see to it that we keep it—to do something every day to make some one happier. Surely none of us are so insignificant that we cannot do this! Just a peasant word, a smile, a warm hand shake, a little deed of kindness—all little things, but it is the little things that make up the sum of life.

The holidays passed off quietly and pleasantly. There were some pleasant visitors in the neighborhood and delightful social gatherings among the young folks.

Miss Lizzie Keeling is the guest of the Misses Cole.

Mr. Ran Coleman and family, of Manchester are at his mother's.

Messrs. George Plunkett and George Tonny visited relatives and friends here during the holidays.

Mr. W. T. Tonny, of Roanoke, was in the neighborhood Saturday.

Mr. Conrad Odor, of the Hill City and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Odor, of Reedy Springs, visited their brother, Mr. T. W. Odor recently.

Mrs. W. G. Coleman, of near Reedy Spring is visiting her daughters, Fannie and Ossie Hunter, of Richmond.

Miss Vivian Coleman, who is teaching near Spring Mills, spent the holidays at home.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Randolph Caldwell is much better.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Miss Mary Inge. One who spent her life in helpfulness to others has gone to her reward.

Miss Etta Coleman is quite sick with LaGrippe.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S McDearmon, Mrs. Samuel Thornton, Mr. Norman Farrar, Mr. and Mrs. J. D McDearmon and others from Evergreen, went to Roanoke last Saturday to attend the banquet given to the employees of the Norfolk and Western Railway.

Miss Elvyn Coleman left Saturday for a visit to her sister, Mr. Paul Warren, of Roanoke.

Mr. George W. Coleman, Jr., visited relatives in Prince Edward during the holidays.

Mr. Floyd Mann has moved to High Bridge and has accepted work with Mr. Otis Mann.

Mr. Joe O'Brien has moved to Mr. Robert Wooldridge's.

Mr. Linwood Gosney, who has been visiting his cousins, Messrs. Bird and Oscar Cole, has returned to his home in Danville.

We understand there is quite a good school at Cheatham's Angle but it is not in full blast. Let us hope everything seems to work just right for some people and others have to be satisfied with whatever those in power see fit to accord them. Well it is said "everything comes to the man who waits," but some of us just naturally get tired of waiting.

Long Creek.

Christmas was very quiet in this neighborhood. It was such springlike weather we could hardly realize that it was Christmas.

There is a good deal of sickness here at present.

Mr. Willie Thornton, who has been very ill for some time is slowly improving.

Paul Hobble, son of Rev. Mr. Hobbly, of Red House, is very sick.

Mr. S. P. Winfield, wife and Miss Lizzie are on the sick list.

Mr. Jesse L. Harvey, who has been at his home here six for some time, returned to Bluefield this week.

Mr. Sam Hunter is up again after a spell of grip.

Messrs James Marshall and Buford McClung, of Bluefield, were the guests of Mrs. Marion Hunter during the holidays.

Messrs Herbert and Elijah Fleshman were the guests of their brother, Mr. Willie Fleshman, this week

We are sorry to hear of the serious illness of Mrs. Nannie Bell Ferguson, in Lynchburg. Her many friends hope for her speedy recovery.

There will be preaching at Trinity Methodist church, Red House, the 2d Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the Rev. N. J. Purdum, of Brookneal.

It is worthy of note that when two Southern state'smen fall out nowadays the first movemen of their right hands is not in the direction of their hip pocket.

Iowa is fortunate in having a Governor who would be satisfied with either a seat in the Senate or the Presidency. Some men are so particular about what they want in the way of office.

You May Need It

Ask your doctor about the wisdom of your keeping Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house, ready for colds, coughs, croup, bronchitis. If he says it's all right, then get a bottle of it at once. Why not show a little foresight in such matters? Early treatment, early cure.

Many a boy is called dull and stupid, when the whole trouble is due to a lazy liver. We firmly believe your own doctor will tell you that an occasional dose of Ayer's Pills will do much to prevent a great deal of good. They keep the liver active.
